

73°F
forecast...

westorangetimes.com

Friday, August 27, 2010

Subs
THE West
TIM
A weekly

Calendar of Events

News

- Front Page
- Top Stories
- Sports
- Business
- Obituaries
- Legals
- Editorial
- Social
- Entertainment
- Schools
- Golf
- Photo Gallery
- Archives

Community

- Winter Garden
- Ocoee
- Windermere
- Dr. Phillips
- Oakland
- MetroWest
- Gotha

Services

- About Us
- Subscribe
- Place a Classified Ad
- Submit Letter
- Guestbook
- Classifieds

Search

Archives

Go!

Google

Go!

Aerial Tour

The Autism and Related Disabilities Gym held sponsored swim lessons for its members at the Jim Beech Recreation Center in Ocoee. Above, Justin Spurgeon leaps into the pool.

TOP STORIES

Winter Garden's Mason Williams is a million-dollar Yankee

As a boy, Mason Williams envisioned himself suiting up in a Boston Red Sox uniform when he dreamt of being a Major League Baseball player. Growing up in Pawtucket, R.I., before moving to Winter Garden at age 13, Williams lived in a family and community of Red Sox fans and was raised on stories of the legendary Ted Williams.

More of this story...

- Rollins College students join in Nehrling Gardens restoration work
- Winter Garden to expand reclaim-water system
- WGPD's Sgt. Butler retires
- Winter Garden donates lobby furniture to UCP
- 4 house fires in 2 days

Sports

Pursuing pro tennis dreams

Simone Vranov-Brown, a former No. 1 tennis player at Olympia High School, solidified her position as one of the area's most dominant female players by winning the Fort Gatlin End of Summer Classic on Sunday, Aug. 14. She defeated the No. 1 seed Gabriela Winter 6-4, 6-2 in the finals at Lake Cane Tennis Center.

More of this story...

Pu
No

yo ne
lev

ADVER
BRAN
MARK
W

phone: 407
alariede

- Local rowers capture national championship
- Lady Hawks go to World Series
- Ocoee offers youth and adult Rec leagues
- Dr. Phillips High 2010-11 athletic passes on sale
- WOHS sets freshman cheerleading tryout dates
- Fall ball registration underway in Windermere

Business

Disney volunteers donate 2 million school supplies

Walt Disney World employees lent a hand last week to Central Florida students in need by giving them the supplies needed to start the upcoming school year. Stocking up on boxes of crayons, rulers, folders and packs of notebook paper, Disney cast members hit an all-time high by donating more than two million school supplies through Walt Disney World Resort's annual back-to-school supply drive.

More of this story...

- Sawyer presented award by Florida Bar
- Upcoming Chamber of Commerce events
- Community Health Centers receives accreditation

THE WEST ORANGE TIMES

720 S. Dillard St. - Winter Garden, Florida 34787